Updated 04/01/20

The following is a list of potential resources for financial assistance during this crisis. We are updating the list as new information becomes available. If you learn of a resource not on this list, please share it to communications@ncmic.com.

PERSONAL

STUDENT LOANS: Information about temporary administrative forbearance of Student loans through September 30, 2020 can be found HERE.

MORTGAGES: Some mortgages may be eligible for temporary forbearance. THIS ARTICLE explains how that might work.

BANKING: Learn what your bank is doing to support its customers during the crisis by VISITING this page.

FEDERAL TAX FILING: The Federal Income Tax filing and extension dates have been pushed back to July 15, 2020 for both individual and business filings. Many states have aligned their filings with the adjusted Federal date – check with your own state.

NATIONAL

THE SMALL BUSINESS OWNER'S GUIDE TO THE CARES ACT

The document HERE will help you understand how this program will work.

Small Business Administration SBA offers a variety of programs that may be able to help, including their Economic Injury Disaster Loan Program which is available in all states and U.S. territories.

From their site: "The SBA will work directly with state Governors to provide targeted, low-interest loans to small businesses and non-profits that have been severely impacted by the Coronavirus COVID-19. The SBA's Economic Injury Disaster Loan program provides small businesses with working capital loans of up to $2 million that can provide vital economic support to small businesses to help overcome the temporary loss of revenue they are experiencing."

Find more information on the SBA's Economic Injury Disaster Loans HERE.

To keep up with the latest Center for Disease Controls information go HERE.

FACEBOOK SMALL BUSINESS GRANTS

From their website: "Facebook is offering $100M in cash grants and ad credits for up to 30,000 eligible small businesses in over 30 countries where we operate. We'll share more details as they become available."
